

Job Title: Voice Director

Company: Hawaii Academy of Performing Arts (HAPA)

Location: Kauai

Job Type: After School Program

About Us:

Hawaii Academy of Performing Arts (HAPA) is a leading institution committed to providing top-tier performing arts education to students from 6th to 12th grade. Our mission is to cultivate creativity, discipline, and excellence in young artists while fostering a profound appreciation for vocal music.

Position Overview:

HAPA is currently seeking a dynamic and experienced Voice Director to lead our vocal music program for students in grades 6 through 12. The Voice Director will be responsible for developing and implementing an annual curriculum, setting levels, conducting monthly meetings with the Programs Director, issuing semester report cards, and providing guidance to high school students for further education or career paths in vocal music.

Responsibilities:

Curriculum Development:

- Craft a comprehensive annual vocal music curriculum for students in grades 6 through 12, ensuring alignment with standards and best practices in vocal education.
- Design progressive levels and learning objectives tailored to the diverse needs and abilities of students across different grade levels.

Instruction and Assessment:

- Deliver engaging and effective vocal music instruction to students, covering a range of techniques, repertoire, and performance skills.
- Conduct regular assessments to evaluate student progress and offer constructive feedback to facilitate growth and development.
- Collaborate with fellow instructors and staff to integrate vocal music education seamlessly with other performing arts disciplines.

Program Management:

- Manage all aspects of the vocal music program, including scheduling, rehearsals, performances, and special events.
- Coordinate closely with the Programs Director to ensure alignment of program goals with the overarching mission and vision of the academy.
- Maintain accurate records of student attendance and performance evaluations.

Guidance and Mentorship:

- Provide personalized guidance and mentorship to high school students interested in pursuing further education or careers in vocal music.
- Assist students in identifying and pursuing opportunities for auditions, competitions, scholarships, and college admissions in vocal music.

Professional Development:

- Stay abreast of current trends, methodologies, and research in vocal music education through ongoing professional development activities, conferences, and networking opportunities.
- Foster a culture of continuous learning and improvement among the vocal music faculty and staff.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in Vocal Music Education or a related field preferred.
- Minimum of 5 years of experience teaching vocal music at various levels, preferably within a school or academy environment.
- Proficiency in vocal pedagogy, repertoire selection, and performance techniques across a range of musical styles.
- Exceptional communication, interpersonal, and organizational skills.
- Ability to collaborate effectively with students, parents, colleagues, and administrators in a diverse community.
- Passion for vocal music education and a strong commitment to inspiring and empowering young artists.

Benefits:

- Competitive salary commensurate with experience.
- Opportunities for professional development and career advancement.
- A supportive and collaborative work environment dedicated to excellence in performing arts education.

If you possess the requisite qualifications and are enthusiastic about shaping the next generation of vocal artists, we encourage you to apply for the position of Voice Director at Hawaii Academy of Performing Arts (HAPA). Join us in nurturing creativity, discipline, and excellence through vocal music education. Please send Resume to office@ThriveWithMovement.com
