

Job Title: Performing Arts Instructor (Part-Time)

Company: Hawaii Academy of Performing Arts

Location: Kauai

Job Type: Part-Time

Position to begin June 2024

About Us:

Hawaii Academy of Performing Arts (HAPA) is dedicated to providing exceptional performing arts education to students of all ages. We offer a variety of programs in music, voice, dance, theater, film/media, and performing arts literature, aimed at nurturing creativity, discipline, and excellence in young artists for grades 6th - 12th.

Position Overview:

We are currently seeking dynamic and experienced Performing Arts Instructors to join our team on a part-time basis. As a Performing Arts Instructor, you will have the opportunity to share your passion and expertise with students while fostering their artistic growth and development.

Responsibilities:

Teaching:

- Deliver engaging and effective instruction in your area of expertise, whether it be music, voice, dance, theater, film/media, or performing arts literature.
- Provide hands-on guidance and support to students, helping them develop their skills and reach their full potential.
- Create a positive and inclusive learning environment that encourages creativity, collaboration, and self-expression.

Curriculum Development:

- Collaborate with the program director to develop and implement curriculum plans that align with the goals and objectives of our organization.
- Design lesson plans, activities, and projects that cater to the diverse needs and interests of students at different skill levels under Director supervision.

Assessment and Feedback:

- Assess student progress through regular evaluations, performances, or presentations.
- Provide constructive feedback to students to help them improve and grow as artists.

Program Support:

- Assist with the planning and organization of program events, performances, and showcases.
- Collaborate with fellow instructors and staff to ensure the smooth operation of programs and activities.

Professional Development:

- Stay updated on current trends, techniques, and developments in your field through ongoing professional development opportunities.
- Participate in staff meetings, workshops, or training sessions as required.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in your respective field or equivalent experience preferred.
- Minimum of 2 years of teaching experience in music, voice, dance, theater, film/media, or performing arts literature.
- Proficiency in your area of expertise and a strong understanding of pedagogical principles.
- Excellent communication, interpersonal, and organizational skills.
- Ability to work effectively with students of all ages and skill levels.
- Passion for performing arts education and a commitment to fostering a supportive and inclusive learning environment.

Benefits:

- Competitive hourly rate commensurate with experience.
- Opportunities for professional development and growth within the organization.
- Flexible scheduling to accommodate part-time availability.
- A supportive and collaborative work environment dedicated to excellence in performing arts education.

How to Apply:

If you are passionate about the performing arts and eager to inspire the next generation of artists, we would love to hear from you! Please submit your resume and a cover letter outlining your qualifications and teaching philosophy to office@thrivewithmovement.com. Be sure to specify the area(s) of performing arts instruction you are interested in (music, voice, dance, theater, film/media, performing arts literature).

We look forward to reviewing your application!
